We Are Number One!

This, was a war . . . Nineteen hundred seventy, seventy one — the year of a "great conquest." The small, but smart Dukes were underrated. Battle after battle the "mighty Dukes" rose to meet and defeat the foe. Soldier's Field was indeed the "scene" of many soldiers fighting gallantly, many fans cheering wildly, thrilling victories, and agonizing defeats. This year; the Dukes were first to represent our district in the Regional Play-offs. This was the season to be remembered . . .

RANDY C. CASEY

June 14, 1952 — August 30, 1970

On September 2, 1970, Coach Carl Lindstrom delivered the elegy in our school memorial assembly where we paid our last respects to Randy Casey.

Below are some of his remarks:

"Randy Casey was a Black man who loved life . . . He was a fine athlete who loved to compete and win . . . Randy always had a smile — he always felt good and was ready to have a good time. In 1970, Randy set a new school distance record of 45 feet in the shot put. He was the spark plug of our football team: our heart. He was our first-team linebacker, and our first-team offensive guard. He was a leader among his people and at Dublin High School."

admiring huge, dignified Seniors . . .
wishing not to be an Eighth Grader . . .
dropping a book in the mad rush between classes . . .
The new arrivals quickly melt
into the daily
routine at D.H.S.!

“ . . . A Million Different Faces . . . ”

going to a new school . . .
wandering through the halls . . .
bumping into strangers . . .
finding a surprise awaiting you upstairs . . .

Eighth Graders discover the world
of D.H.S.;

“where it's happening!”

getting used to changing classes . . .
straining through football practice . . .
being mobbed during the rush to lunch . . .
forgetting where to go next . . .

Initiation at D.H.S.

takes its toll
of Eighth Graders!

The scene is confusion as Eighth Graders come to D.H.S. for the first time.

... it seems as if time
has passed to eternity.
people finding
D. H. S. where it happened!

a scene
of emptiness . . .
a classroom
where students once chattered
an auditorium
lonely for practicing drama students

a scene
of quiet . . .
a hall
where 1000 locker doors no longer slam squeaking every moment

a scene
of peace . . .
a field
where grass can grow again
a library
where books can rest "in peace"

a scene
of memories . . .
a senior
shedding a tear at the thought of leaving a whisper
of good-bye to a favorite teacher
